

GENERAL ORDER NO. 22

STUDENT PRACTICE

1. An eligible law student acting under the supervision of a member of a bar of this court may appear on behalf of any client including federal, state or local government bodies if the client has filed a written consent with the court.

2. An eligible student must:

- (a)(i) be certified by the state bar as a law student intern; or
- (ii) be enrolled and in good standing in an American Bar Association approved or in a state accredited law school; have completed one-third of the legal studies required for graduation, or be a recent graduate of such school awaiting the result of a state bar examination; and
- (b) have knowledge of and be familiar with the Federal Rules of Evidence and Civil and Criminal Procedure; the Code of Professional Responsibility; and the rules of this court;
- (c) be certified by the dean of the law school as being adequately trained to fulfill all responsibilities as a law student intern to the court;
- (d) not accept compensation for his legal services directly from a client; and
- (e) file with the clerk all documents required to comply with this rule.

3. The supervising attorney shall:

- (a) be admitted to practice before the highest court of any state for two years or longer and have been admitted to practice before this court;
- (b) appear with the student in any oral presentation before the court;

- (c) sign all documents filed with the court;
 - (d) assume professional responsibility for the student's work in matters before the court;
 - (e) assist and counsel the student in the preparation of the student's work in matters before the court; and
4. The dean's certification of the student:
- (a) shall be filed with the clerk of court and unless sooner withdrawn shall remain in effect until publication of the results of the first bar examination following graduation;
 - (b) may be withdrawn by the court at any time in the discretion of the court and without cause shown; and
 - (c) may be withdrawn by the dean with notice to the court.
5. Upon fulfilling the requirements of this rule, the student may:
- (a) assist in the preparation of briefs, motions and other documents pertaining to a case before this court; and
 - (b) appear and make oral presentations before this court when accompanied by the supervising attorney.
6. The court retains the authority to establish exceptions to this rule in any case.
