

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE: ROUNDUP PRODUCTS
LIABILITY LITIGATION

MDL No. 2741

Case No. 16-md-02741-VC

This document relates to:

Mathis v. Monsanto Co., 19-cv-6225

Frey v. Monsanto Co., 19-cv-6460

PRETRIAL ORDER NO. 194:
LIFTING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE;
DISMISSING COMPLAINT

Re: Dkt. No. 7810

In Pretrial Order No. 188, Dkt. No. 7810, the Court ordered the plaintiffs in the related cases to show cause why their complaints should not be dismissed for lack of personal jurisdiction. See also Pretrial Order No. 183, Dkt. No. 7196. Frey responded by dismissing her claims so that she can refile in a proper jurisdiction. See Dkt. Nos. 8224, 8225. Mathis, for her part, did not respond at all.

Mathis' claims are dismissed without prejudice for lack of personal jurisdiction; this dismissal does not prevent Mathis from filing in an appropriate jurisdiction. The order to show cause is lifted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: December 9, 2019

VINCE CHHABRIA
United States District Judge